

Bio - Kristen Henry

Kristen is the Program Manager with Operation Homefront in the Nashville, TN office covering all of Tennessee & Kentucky. She organizes and executes all of the programs and fundraising initiatives, grant applications for foundations, and manages the volunteers in both states. She started her career in the nonprofit sector working for Goodwill Industries of Central AL as the Public Relations Director. Before moving to the Nashville area, she worked as the Information & Referral Consultant on Maxwell Air Force Base in Montgomery, AL.

She is originally from Prattville, Alabama and graduated from The University of Alabama in 2007 with a BA in Communications & Public Relations. During her senior year in college, she briefly lived in Nashville, while interning at the Country Music Association (CMA), and is so glad to be back in Music City!

Aside from her passion to support military families and Veterans, she has also traveled overseas doing mission work in Kenya, Africa with Kenya Relief and Haiti with Samaritan's Purse. She is very passionate about helping those who need it the most! She is also an Ambassador for Nashville's Network Under 40 group, where she has been a critical support for young professionals.
